Evening Message

"This Little Light of Mine" - Bliss Steele

Are you letting it shine? We are commanded to let our light shine, so we will take look at John 1:5 and Matthew 5:16 on just how significant the light of Christ is in our lives and how we are to let it shine in the world around us.

Saturday March 23

Lunch 12:00pm

Session One 12:45pm

"Finding Your Calling" – Dr. Page Wages

Dr. Wages will get us started by sharing a message that encourages us and challenges us in finding our calling. Page is a veteran leader of short-term mission trips and Real Life Real Impacts in the Caribbean. Her passion in working with students is evident, and we're excited to start our Saturday with a word from her.

Session Two 1:30pm

"Seeking God's Plan After Vet School" – Dr. Ginger Pelc

Starting the job search process can be very daunting. There are so many practices looking to hire and many practices can look very similar. In this talk we'll discuss how to narrow down the field of options and keep God front and center in the process. Whether it's landing in a Christian practice, or being the only Christian in a practice, God has a place for you and an opportunity to minister where He has placed you.

Break and Group Picture 2:15pm

Session Three 2:30pm

“Lights and Anchors” – Briana Blackwelder

Vet school is a wonderful, often stressful, and at times a humbling experience. Where are we anchoring during these times, or better yet, who are we anchoring in? When we anchor in Jesus, His light shines through us pointing others to Him. Briana, a 3rd year vet student at NCSU, will also share about her experiences with short term missions.

Session Four 3:15pm

“Missions and Seeing God Work” – Dr. Deb Mauterer

The mission field is wherever God takes you in life. Veterinary Medicine opens doors for ministry in unexpected places. In this talk, Dr. Deb Mauterer will share the things she has learned about God and relationships, both at work and on the mission field.

Breakout Sessions 4:00pm

Critical Care and Emergency Skills Lab

Non-Vets Break and Discussion

Dinner 6:30pm

Praise & Worship 7:30pm

Evening Message

“God is Talking... Are You Listening?” – Dr. John Mauterer

Dr. John has had the opportunity to serve and see God active in the world. He will share an encouraging talk that is full of personal testimony as well as verses from the Bible that accompany his stories.

Sunday March 24

Morning Message at CSA 11:00am

“Let Christ’s Light Reflect” – Curtiss Gibbs

Curtiss will share both a challenge and an encouragement from the opening chapter of John. Let us examine ourselves and our walk with Christ, as well as share Christ with others. We will shine a light on ourselves in a reflective way, so that we can also shine a light for others.

Lunch & Goodbyes 12:30pm
