

Professional RLRI

Northwest @ Camp Koinonia

January 14th, 2022

FRIDAY

10:45-11:30am	Check in, Introduction, Welcome — Dr. Nancy Moore
11:30am-12:20pm	Dr. Rebecca Quam Developing a Personal Mission Statement
12:30-1:20pm	Lunch
1:20-2:10pm	Dr. Daniel Graham Case Studies In Veterinary Theology
2:10-3:00pm	Dr. Annabelle Zastrow The Human Face of God's Grace
3:10-4:00pm	Dr. Dick Temple "My Questions"
4:00-4:15pm	Debrief, Prayer, Adjourn to RLRI if attending

Developing a Personal Mission Statement — Dr. Rebecca Quam

How do you make the important decisions in your life? What direction do you want to go? A prayerfully developed personal mission statement can help guide and sometimes simplify your life decisions to keep them line with your goals and

Case Studies In Veterinary Theology — Dr. Daniel Graham

Anthropology: Furbabies and the Image of God, Ecclesiology: Companion Animals and Man's Best Friends and Soteriology: Pet Adoptions and the Forever Family of God

The Human Face of God's Grace – Dr. Annabelle Zastrow

In this session we will take a spiritual dive into not only studying what God's Grace is - why, when, and how He expresses it, but also to discover, together, in an interactive session, what the human face of that grace looks like: why, when and how we are to give that grace to others, as we live out our mission in the practice of veterinary medicine. This will be an interactive, fun session, and we will celebrate and encourage each other as the Holy Spirit sheds His Light on who He already made each of us to be: the human face of God's Grace.

"My Questions" – Dr. Dick Temple

Is the Bible the truth from the Creator of the Universe? How do we know? Most of Dick's career he has been a solo practitioner in cow country. He will translate the creation/evolution issue into cowboy English and apply evidence and

Christian
Veterinary Mission

