

South Central RLRI 2026 Featured Speakers – Amarillo, TX

Friday

April 17

Bo Brock, DVM

Dr. Brock received his DVM from Texas A&M in 1990, and is one of only 88 board certified Equine practitioners in the USA. He has operated Brock Veterinary Clinic in Lamesa, Texas since 1992 – a mixed animal practice with equine interest that sees around 11,000 horses per year. They have seven full time veterinarians on staff, and do approximately 600 arthroscopic and 125 colic surgeries per year. Dr. Brock has spoken at American Association of Equine Practitioners six times, multiple veterinary college commencement ceremonies, and other continuing education seminars.

Devotion

Nancy Krutzsch

Nancy has been working in the veterinary industry both as a Certified Veterinary Practice Manager and a veterinary manufacturer sales representative for over 12 years. A CVM Short-Term Mission trip to Haiti led to a transformed relationship with God. Nancy's involvement with CVM grew through Real Life Real Impact (RLRI) participation and multiple short-term mission trips. Her passion for workplace ministry and short-term missions drew her full-time to CVM as the South Central Region Rep in July 2023. Nancy's free time is spent working on the farm with her husband Jonathan and visits from her three grown sons, two daughters in law, and one granddaughter.

Session I

Marina Conner, DVM

Dr. Marina Conner is a 2025 graduate of Texas A&M University CVM and former CVF officer. Dr. Conner lives in Panhandle, Texas, with her two kittens, Teddy and Ginger, and her ball python, Mrs. Nielsen. She practices rural mixed animal medicine at Carson County Veterinary Clinic and High Plains Animal Hospital. In her free time, she enjoys watercoloring, walking, and spending time with friends.

Dan Posey, DVM

Dr. Dan Posey graduated from Texas A&M University in 1982. He served as rural practitioner in Madison County for 20 years prior to his teaching career at Texas A&M University. In Madisonville, he became a member of the First Methodist Church. There was tremendous spiritual growth through his 20-year ministry in Madisonville and served as the lay leader of the church. When his career moved to teaching, he found his ministry through the Christian Veterinary Fellowship. Dan is blessed to be married to Timmye Posey for 47 years. They are blessed with their two daughters, Abra and Rachel, son-in-law Heath and two granddaughters, Addie and Ameila.

Session II

Bethany Schilling, DVM

Dr. Bethany Schilling has had to pivot many times in her life and career. From mixed animal practice to clinical teaching at Texas A&M SA VMTH to small animal private practice/partnership to now teaching at Texas Tech University School of Veterinary Medicine. As one of the founding faculty, she has witnessed much transformation. While she loves teaching, her true heart beats for mentoring and discipling the next generation of veterinarians and believers.

Laurie Gray, DVM

Dr. Gray grew up in Long Island, NY with two school teachers as parents. A very goal oriented family that always aimed for the moon. She wanted to be a Veterinarian since she was 3 and her father made sure she could spell Veterinarian as a Kindergartner. Graduated from the University of Minnesota class of '94 then travelled South!! Dr. Gray is a mixed animal practitioner and business owner since 1997. Two clinics, a family of 6 or 8 or 9 depending on the day, and a funny farm of random animals as well.

Session III

Bill Dubois, DVM, DABVP

Dr. Bill DuBois is a 1996 graduate of Oklahoma State University College of Veterinary Medicine. He completed a residency in Food Animal Medicine and Surgery at Oklahoma State in 2000 and is a Diplomate of the American Board of Veterinary Practitioners – Food Animal Specialty. In 2022, he earned a Master of Veterinary Science in Livestock Systems Health degree from the University of Illinois.

During his career, he has worked in different roles in livestock health and production including general practice, university teaching, and consultation. He is currently employed as an affiliate veterinarian with Circle H Animal Health in Dalhart, TX where he does consultation with large swine producers.

From 2015 to early 2025, Bill was long-term fieldworker with Christian Veterinary Mission. He and his family served in the country of Indonesia in SE Asia. There they worked together with a Christian college and a local Christian ministry. They conducted trainings in livestock husbandry and English language to equip the college students for their future ministries and to equip community members to improve their family's economy.

He is married to Dr. Angie DuBois (1999 Ok. State), and they have 2 children, Iris (19) and Vince (17).

Trisha Kvasnica, DVM

Having worked corporate, shelter, and private small animal practice, Dr. K has had a variety of experiences that have matured her practice and faith. Now a practice owner, wife of 25+ years and with five "mostly grown" children, she spends her occasional free time gardening, scrapbooking or watching old chick flicks.

Session IV

Beau Schilling, DVM

Beau Schilling, DVM, MS and Bethany Schilling, DVM, MA celebrate 15 years of marriage this year. Beau practices small animal medicine and Bethany teaches at TTU SVM. They have 3 children ages 5 to 11. They both grew up in different regions of rural Texas.

Beau's faith became real to him during graduate school in 2005 in a true desert experience. It is his joy to testify of the power of God in his life and his family's life, to call out the evil one, and to encourage his brothers and sisters to be in scripture.

Tera Eddleman

Tera Eddleman is a seasoned accountant and financial analyst with strong roots in veterinary practice management. She is the owner of Summit Veterinary Advisors, a consulting firm that specializes in veterinary specific bookkeeping, accounting and practice valuations. She is a Certified Valuation Analyst, QuickBooks Pro Advisor, and Co-Chair of the VetPartners Valuation Council. Tera lives in Weatherford, Texas with her Husband Kirk, three daughters and a menagerie of pets. She has a passion for learning and teaching the Bible. In her free time, you can find her deep in Bible Study, learning Hebrew, quilting, bowhunting or spending precious time with her family.

Session V

Caleta Willis, MS

Ms. Caleta Willis is a 2020 graduate from East Texas A&M University. She lives in Abilene, TX with her son Samuel, their dog Cleo, and their cat Meow Meow. Caleta is the College Assistant Professor of Animal Science at Abilene Christian University and is currently pursuing her Ph.D. in Reproductive Physiology from Texas A&M. In her free time, she enjoys any adventure with her son, traveling to new places, trying new foods, and cheering for the University of Oklahoma Sooners.

Julie King, DVM

Julie King, Medical Director and small animal practitioner at Branson Veterinary Hospital. Native of the Branson, MO area, currently living in Sparta, MO, a small town SE of Springfield. Married to Will King, a master electrician. Our child is a demanding Siamese mix named Emory. When not at work I am relaxing on my porch, performing stress relief at the gym, reading books, or serving at church where I sing on the praise team and help with various ministries, to include the college and career group. This is my 2nd time to attend RLRI and so excited to participate again!

Evening Challenge

Sara-Louise Newcomer, DVM

Sara-Louise Newcomer received her DVM from the University of Florida in 2003. She and her husband BJ live in Canyon, Texas with their two dogs, Willow Kate and Calla Jo, and their cat, LC. Dr. Newcomer is the Director of the Companion Animal Program at WTAMU where she has the joy of teaching and mentoring undergraduate students. In her spare time, she loves cooking, gardening, and being entertained by her animals.
