In 1976, CVM was founded by Dr. Leroy Dorminy who came to realize the impact that veterinarians could have by integrating their faith with their profession in communities worldwide.

Every year Christian Veterinary Mission (CVM) sends over 400 short-term participants on over 120 trips to 23 countries around the world. These volunteers use their God-given skills and gifts to express Christ’s love through veterinary missions.

The objective of CVM’s Short-Term Missions program is to provide opportunities for veterinarians, technicians and vet students to effectively use their faith, skills and abilities in Christian service. They work alongside community and church leaders and with missionaries in ministries which share our values, partnering with them in long-term goals and vision for their communities.

“Getting to put your passion for Christ into your passion for vet med is such a seamless and fulfilling practice that was modeled and encouraged on the trip. No class in vet school will ever teach you how to do that!” - Stevie Dietzel
